

Cornelius Nesen

Personal Qualities:

- Capable of working independently or as part of a team
- Great leadership and communication skills

Languages:

- Fluent in English and Ukrainian

Work Experience:

Kaiser Aluminum - 2017

- Engineering Assistant

Convergys - 2016

- Technical Support for AT&T Business Customers

City of London - 2010 to 2015

- Spectrum Program Instructor

Future Shop - 2011

- Entertainment Associate

Education:

Western University - 2013 to 2017

- Bachelor of Medical Science
- Minor in Computer Science
- Master of Engineering - Software Engineering

Mother Teresa Catholic Secondary School - 2009 to 2013

- Graduated 2013

Leader in Training - 2009 to 2010

- Level 1, 2 & 3 Program Graduate - City of London, ON

Volunteer Experience:

University of Western Ontario - 2007

- Participated in internet security research studies

3M Canada - 2006 to 2013

- Providing assistance in organizing/running 3M special events

Awards:

- Youth Appreciation & Ontario Scholar Award 2009
 - Computer Engineering Awards 2012 & 2013
 - Hamilton and Bernice Meldrum Guthrie Entrance Scholarship 2013
 - Deans Honour Role - Western University 2014 - 2017
 - Presenter at Western's Pathology and Laboratory Medicine Research Day 2017
-